1957 DAYLILIES

THE EXCITING NEW DAYLILIES

Daylilies are easy to grow and will take care of themselves. New flowers will open each day, creating much excitement. Daylilies have become America's fastest growing hobby flower, due to the many astounding colors, forms and their toleration of all sorts of soils. Daylilies are tough, they can stand heat and drought.

CULTURE

Daylilies should be planted with crown of plant one inch beneath soil surface. The crown of plants is where the roots join the foliage. Plant in a sunny location for maximum bloom. The soil should be well drained and supplied with plenty of organic matter. Add a good sized handful of bonemeal when planting. When plants are getting their flower scapes give plenty of water for best result; water will well repay you in large blooms and good color.

PREMIUMS: On orders of $4.00 and over, we add an extra gift plant. Another premium we are noted for is our large, husky plant.

TERMS: Cash with order. All orders of $4.00 and more shipped postpaid. Below that, add 40c for shipping and packing.

INVITATION: You are invited to join the HEMEROCALLIS SOCIETY. Send $3.50 dues to the American Hemerocallis Society, Secretary, Daisy L. Ferrick, 416 Arter Ave., Topeka, Kansas.

Fass Gardens 1957 Daylily Introductions

RIPPLETONE (P. J. Fass) Hidden Treasure X Pirates Treasure. A beautiful pale pastel color of pinkish-orange. The flower appears to be a pastel pink. Both petals and sepals are narrow, and crinkled at edges. The tips of petals and sepals have a deeper tone of color giving this flower plenty of class. I like the flower even better at night after a strong sunny day for then the flower has lost a lot of color, the tips of petals retain their depth of color making the flower more appealing. 36 in. Midseason. $10.00

BOUNTIFUL ORCHID (P. J. Fass) Mission Bells X Whorl of Gold. A charming orchid shaped flower of pale cream yellow. The flowers are of excellent substance and fine form, borne on graceful, sturdy scapes. Well branched and a bountiful bloomer. 36 in. Midseason. $10.00
